Instructions:
Historians, select a photograph that you saw while creating your timeline from the Snapshots of The Great Depression link that would relate to the Mildred Taylor story you read.
Choose wisely because you are going to explain the following in your written response (please check the box when you have included it in your response):
☐ What time frame (year) does this book take place and where?
☐ Why did you choose this picture?
☐ Where in the book would this picture fit with the story line?
☐ Use at least 2 pieces of text evidence and state page number(s) of why it fits in with the story.
